MURAL in a DAY: STREET ART WORKSHOP

WORKSHOP for STAGE 3, 4 & 5 STUDENTS

A one-day workshop that introduces and builds on students’ street art making skills. Participating students experience a range of materials and techniques under the guidance of a renowned Australian street artist.

Students work collaboratively with visiting artist and DEC teacher to produce a wall mural in your school as well as participate in skill building activities that culminate in smaller works that students can take home at the completion of the workshop.

Where & When: Workshops are held at your school and run by a DEC teacher from 9AM – 3PM during NSW school term days. (please nominate a date and we will try our best to accommodate your school)

COST: $2000 including all art materials, visiting artist and specialist teacher (students need to bring their own lunch and painting clothes)
